BIO

From the Studio to the Sideline.

I'm Colombian — passionate, resilient, and driven by the work. For 12 years I was on Univision as co-host of Republica Deportiva, the network's flagship sports show, sitting across from the biggest names in soccer, boxing, and baseball. I also anchored the weekend weather on Univision's local news — live television, every week.

Today I'm a Certified Health Coach and a mom, bringing that same on-camera ease to a new chapter — sports correspondent, brand host, and bilingual talent for the biggest stage in football. I work with brands that share my commitment to strength, wellness, and showing up authentically for the Latina audience.
